

Our network

With an extensive Ile-de-France network of 70 port sites, including 6 multimodal platforms, HAROPA - Ports de Paris offers the city the conditions for virtuous development.

- Territorial Department of Paris -
Published on 7 February 2019

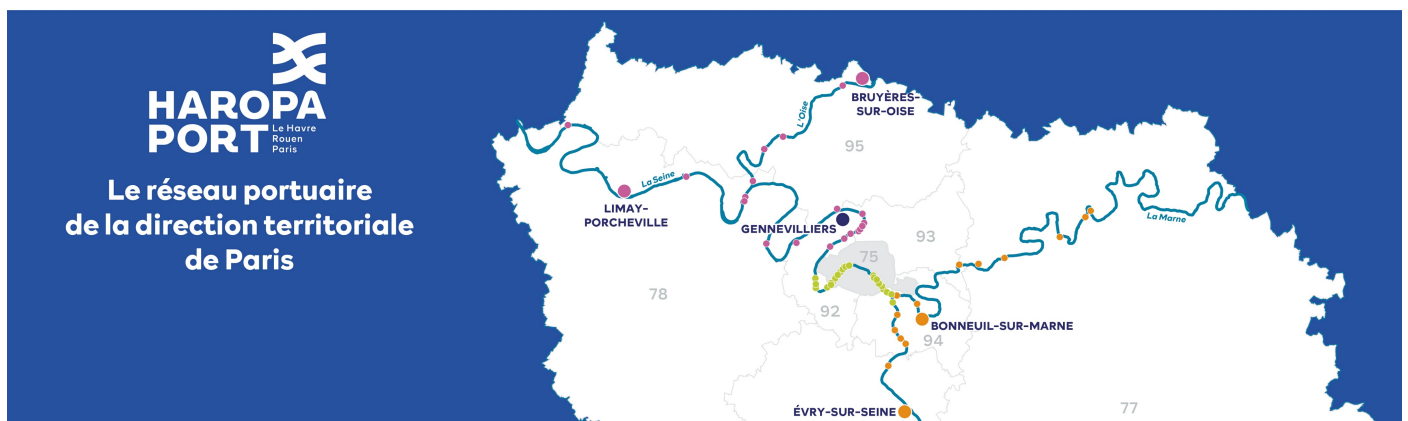

HAROPA - Ports de Paris is organized on a territorial level from 4 port agencies. Their strong presence ensures the development, in Ile-de-France, of 70 public ports and supports many private ports through close contact with local authorities and companies.

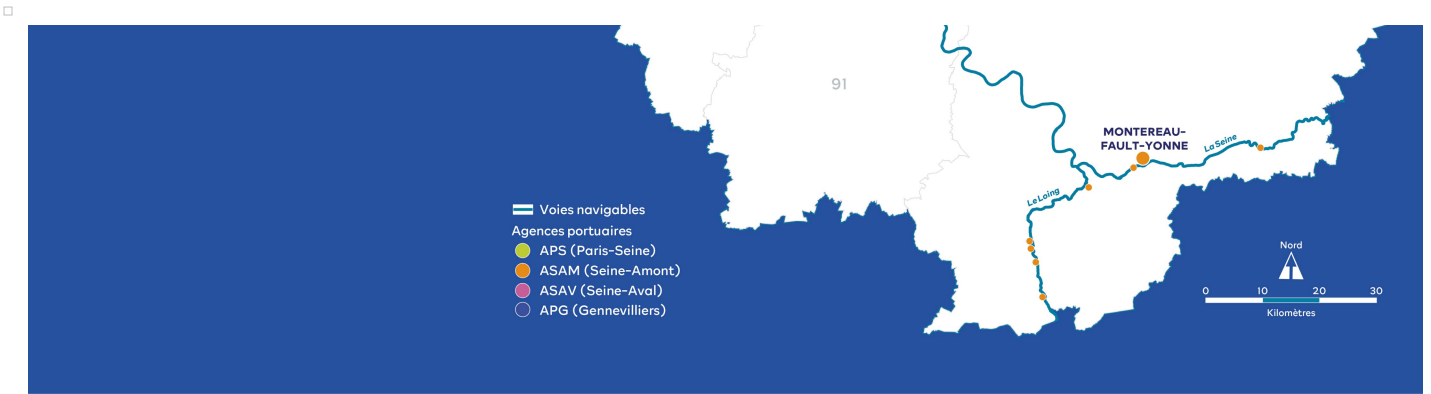

Port agencies

A port agency is an administrative entity responsible for developing the various port(s) under its responsibility. The local management entities of Ports de Paris are:

- the Gennevilliers agency,
- the Paris Seine agency,
- the Seine-aval agency,
- the Seine-amont agency.

HAROPA - Ports de Paris' branch network

LE RÉSEAU D'AGENCES DE HAROPA - PORTS DE PARIS

GENNEVILLIERS AGENCY

The largest port platform in Ile-de-France in terms of surface area and activity (400 ha, includ

PARIS SEINE AGENCY

The Paris-Seine agency manages a network of 26 urban ports, 18 short- and long-term ports of cal...

SEINE AVAL AGENCY

Comprising 13 urban ports and 4 multimodal platforms, including the port of Limay (78) located o...

SEINE AMONT AGENCY

The agency's territory extends over the entire upstream area of the Seine from the Port à l'Angl...